

COURSE CODE – 1020704

UG DEGREE EXMINATION - JAN 2009

BLIS

LIBRARY CATALOGUING THEORY

(For the Candidates Admitted from Calendar 2007 onwards)

Time: 3 hours

Max. Marks 75

Section-A

Answer all the Questions:

15 X 1 = 15

1. What is a library catalogue?
2. What are functions of catalogue?
3. What are types of physical forms of library catalogue?
4. Who gave a significant contribution chain procedure to the field of Indexing?
5. Who was defined the word PRECIS?
6. Who is compiler of subject headings?
7. Define descriptive cataloguing?
8. What are the four divisions of classified catalogue codes entries?
9. What are the widely used catalogue codes?
10. What are objectives of centralized cataloguing?
11. Who is author of the concept POPSI?
12. Define catalogue code?
13. What is Indexing?
14. Define PRECIS
15. What are the AACRII recognized major kinds of entries of dictionary catalogue?

Section-B

Answer any Five Questions:

5 X 6 = 30

16. a. What are the important physical forms of catalogue ?
(Or)
b. What are objectives of library catalogue?
17. a. Explain Indexing
(Or)
b. Describes the main features of centralized catalogue?
18. a. What do you understand by subject catalogue?
(Or)
b. Explain the concept of chain procedure
19. a. What is objectives of PRÉCIS
(Or)
b. What is quality of POPSI
20. a. Write a note on ISBD
(Or)
b. Explain in detail the canon of recall value?

Section -C

Answer any Two Questions:

2 X 15 = 30

21. Define library catalogue, objectives and functions?
22. What are the important physical forms of catalogue and describe them in detail?
23. Explain the concept of main entry as per classified catalogue code and AACR II.
24. What are the tools you would use for the preparation on of subject headings? Explain.
25. Write short notes on a. mixed Authorship b. Pseudonymous works.